

L.E.A.P. UNIQUE WORKSHOP

Are you ready for January 6, 2004? As promised you are in for a trend-setting learning experience. Plan now to invite a community partner. Plan to bring your ideas. Plan to have fun!

This session is not to be missed unless you are traveling to a warm climate.

BANGS AND BUMMERS

Things that worked and did not work in your lead poisoning health message-Part 1

This EXCITING workshop will show you how to:

- +Examine your next presentation using the MAP method
- +Review different health education methods that work in the right setting for the right folks

This UNIQUE workshop will give you an opportunity to:

- +Share and Learn from others things that have been successful and unsuccessful
- +Look differently at the term Health Education

Workshop leaders will be Crystal Motlasz, Madeline Brown, Rosie Horner. Space is limited to 50 people so we need you to respond no later than December 29, 2004. Call Crystal Motlasz at 1-609-292-5666.

Breakfast and lunch will be provided. But if you want to bring some left over goodies from the holidays goodies from the holidays or that fruitcake someone gave you - please let me or Felicia know.

What if it snows? Don't worry, the snow date is Jan. 20, 2004

Mass Transit:

PATH and Amtrak rail lines and New Jersey Transit buses and trains serve Newark Penn Station, located in downtown Newark, about a mile from the ICPH. The Air Train is also available from Newark International Airport to Newark Penn Station. Schedule and fare information are available at www.njtransit.com and www.newarkairtrain.com. Taxi service is available to and from Newark Penn Station and Newark International Airport.

From Newark Penn Station, take the Newark City Subway to the Warren Street Station. Exit to the street using the stairs labeled Warren Street, which will be on the right. Walk to the intersection; Warren Street will be directly in front of you. Turn right onto Warren Street and cross Lock Street/Raymond Boulevard. Proceed up the hill on Warren Street. You will pass the Warren Street School on your left. After 2 blocks you will see the ICPH on your right.

The City Subway costs $.50 between Newark Penn Station and Warren Street (except between 4-6 PM from Penn Station. The fare is then $1.10). Purchase a "Downtown Fare" ticket from the Ticket Vending Machines and validate (stamp) the ticket in a ticket validator located on the concourse level. Keep your ticket available, as it may be checked when you enter or leave the City Subway.
